

#8 ST. GEORGE'S

We like to take teams to the capital for at least one day of fun in the sun and tourism. A “must-see” is the marketplace— every square inch is packed with wooden tables and shelves (full of fruit, vegetables and spice) and shaded by colorful umbrellas or strung-up tarps.

We also like to pray over the city while at the old forts— which overlooks the capital and offers panoramic views.

